Step into a world of timeless elegance with 'Paris After Midnight' — a jazz manouche quartet that brings the golden age of European swing to life.

Based in Vienna but with a colouful blend of Italian, British, Romany, and Austrian roots, the ensemble captures the romance and vitality of 1930s Paris with effortless charm.

Inspired by the legendary sounds of Django Reinhardt and Stéphane Grappelli, their music blends sophistication and spontaneity in equal measure.

Refined enough for a gala, warm enough for a dance floor. From glittering ballrooms to intimate soirées, Paris After Midnight transforms every event into a celebration of style, soul, and swing.
